- TAC shall inform Customer if TAC determines that in TAC's opinion, Customer's item is not authentic or "age unknown". It shall be Customer's sole responsibility to communicate with whatever person or entity from which Customer acquired the non-authentic item. TAC shall have no responsibility to take any actions beyond informing Customer of TAC's opinion that an item is not authentic.
- TAC will not authenticate any single-sided sign that has been restored.
- TAC will not authenticate item(s) it deems as "age unknown".
- For a more detailed list of what we can and cannot authenticate visit MatthewsTAC.com.
- Customer permits TAC to take photographs of each item(s) necessary for authenticating the item. All such photographs shall remain the property of TAC. Customer authorizes and permits TAC to place photographs of Customer's item on TAC's website in the manner and in such times as TAC in its sole discretion desires.
- TAC Hologram: For any item deemed by TAC to be authentic, Customer authorizes and permits TAC to affix a tamper-proof hologram on the item to reflect TAC's authentication of the item. Each tag shall be placed by TAC on the item at such position and location as TAC in its sole discretion shall determine.
- After the inspection and tagging of an item, should TAC learn of information that it did not reasonably have available to it at the time of inspection, TAC reserves the right to modify or rescind any statement of authentication or rating of the item previously given by TAC. Should TAC determine from this new information that the item is not authentic, TAC reserves the right to refund its fee to the Customer and Customer authorizes and permits TAC to then remove any previously affixed TAC hologram from the item.
- Should Customer remove or reuse a hologram affixed by TAC to Customer's item, Customer shall have been deemed to have voided TAC's authentication of Customer's item and shall have been deemed to have voided any Idea of Value given by TAC for Customer's item, and TAC shall have no further responsibilities or liabilities to Customer for any reason whatsoever. If Customer wants its item to receive a new sticker or a new tag, Customer must pay TAC to affix a new sticker or tag. NEW TAG CHARGE – MARKET RATE.
